JCC-SLO Invites Public to Annual Open House April 19

The Jewish Community Center of San Luis Obispo is hosting its annual Open House on April 19 from 1-3pm, at 875 Laureate Lane. The event is free to the public and features a silent auction and refreshments.

Community members are welcome to come learn about the JCC-SLO. Attendees can sign up for membership, request or enroll in activities, stroll the JCC's 10-acres of land, and talk to the JCC's new Director, Lauren Bandari.

The Open House will be an opportunity to meet others interested in the Central Coast's Jewish community. Hadassah, Cal Poly Jewish groups, and a new chapter of the Anti-Defamation League in SLO County will be on hand to share their information and upcoming events.

The JCC-SLO thanks the residents of San Luis Obispo County for their continued support and looks forward to an expanded presence in the community. For more information log onto www.jccslo.com
