Rabbi Janice Mehring

Sunday, September 18, 4pm, Steynberg Gallery

One Rabbi's Interfaith Journey

Followed by a 4-part series: Love and Religion: An Interfaith Workshop for Jews and their Partners

"Enlarge the size of your tent and extend the size of your dwelling. Spare not! Lengthen the ropes and drive the pegs firm".... (Isaiah 54:2)

Join Rabbi Janice Mehring as she shares her thoughts on intermarriage and raising children in intermarried families. Her experience as an educator and a rabbi affirm that the family is more whole and the community strengthened when we welcome everyone within the tent. When we follow the universal principle, expressed in Genesis, that every individual is intrinsically sacred and created b'tzelem Elohim – in the image of God – we must embrace every person in our community as holy and accepted.
